Identify the essential APA citation elements for a scholarly journal article

Write the number for each of these 10 essential elements of an APA citation on the screenshot below. For example, write the number one (1) beside the author’s name(s) on the screenshot.

1. Author(s) name(s)
2. Year of publication
3. Title of article
4. Subtitle of article (if there is one)
5. Title of Journal
6. Volume number
7. Issue Number
8. Starting page number
9. Ending page number
10. DOI (if shown)

Correctly-formatted APA citation:

Spot the mistakes in this computer-generated APA citation from Summon:

Note: Many databases will automatically generate APA citations, but they usually contain errors. Compare this citation with the one above. What is different?